PROGRESS REPORT SCHOOL BUILDING PROGRAM

A meeting of the Grayling School Board of Education and members of the J & G Day, Inc. was held in the activity room of the school on Monday, July 23, 1963.

receive approval on the Contract Documents such that subsequently these documents could be issued for bidding purposes.

The date of the bid opening was established as August 14, 1963, at 8:00 P.M. Bids will be received at the existing High School, Grayling, Michigan.

The Architects and Engineers indicated that combined-proposals will be received on the new Elementary Facilities as well as separate proposals for Architectural, Mechanical, Electrical and Kitchen Equipment, as well as Special Equipment.

It was indicated that by bidding the New School in this manner that it would be advantageous to the School Board from a cost point of view.

The Architects and Engineers reviewed the advertisements for bids with the Board and left copies of these advertisements which will appear in the Crawford County Avalanche on July 25 and August 1, 1963.

The Board of Education approved the final contract documents and authorized the Architects and Engineers to proceed to issue these documents for bidding purposes.

The Board requested that the Architects include electrical outlets in the enclosed court yard areas such that they might be utilized for decorative purposes, etc.

The following colors were selected from materials on the rehabilitation work on the existing High School.

The insoleum floor for the third floor corridor, Marbelle by Armstrong Cork Company, and the gymnasium dividing curtains beige.

On Tuesday evening the 18th, the board met for the purpose of receiving bids on the purchase of the school bonds. The firm of Kenower, MacArthur and Company of Detroit was the low bidder.

Twilight Twirlers Activities

Eight members of the Twilight Twirlers participated in the juvenile parade of the National Cherry Festival which was held at Traverse City July 11-12. Members from Grayling were Cheryl and Susan Bourrie, Nancy Brown, Dorothy Filley, Marie Melisac and Monica Stephan. Two members from Gladwin completed the group.

There are no lessons this week as Mrs. Lippard is attending a twirling and dancing school in Alma.

When lessons resume next week several changes are planned for the drill team. The requirement of twirling lessons to belong to the group is being removed. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Lippard after July 29 by calling 348-2886.

The group is hard at work on a new show drill for the talent contest at the Arenac County Fair August 8. If any civic group or organization would like the Twirlers to do a short program for them they may contact Mrs. Lippard.

MILLIKIN - COLLEN WED JUNE 29th

Miss Carolyn Ann Millikin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Millikin of Star Route, Grayling, became the bride of Mr. George Samuel Colleen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Colleen Jr., of Karen Woods, Grayling, on June 29th, 1963 at seven-thirty in the evening at the Michelson Memorial church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. C. Puffer before fifty guests.

Mrs. Arthur Foldhauser played the organ and sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because". An assortment of pink and white flowers, and lighted tapers provided the setting for the marriage ceremony.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a ballerina-length gown with Chantilly lace bodice and nylon chiffon skirt. Her fingertip-length veil was held by a pearl tiara. Her flowers were white chrysanthemums and red roses held with white streamers.

Miss Linda Covert attended the bride. Her dress was of yellow Chantilly lace the same length as the bride's. With it she wore a crystal necklace and a white rose corsage.

Richard Bebow was best man. Mrs. Millikin chose a beige sheath dress and crystal necklace, with a yellow rose corsage to complete her costume. Mrs. Colleen chose a white suit with pink accessories, and wore a pink rose corsage.

The Bowditch Club was the scene of a reception for one hundred guests following the wedding. The building was decorated in blue and pink streamers for the occasion. Acting Mrs. Millikin in serving her guests were her daughters and daughters-in-law. Mrs. Gerald Walker, Mrs. Monte Maton, Mrs. William Jack Millikin and Mrs. Don Millikin, and also Mrs. Francis Warner of Lake Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Colleen, both 1963 graduates of Grayling High School, are now making their home at the Danish Landing, Lake Margrethe.

Among those attending the wedding and reception were Mrs. Walter Farling and family, Mr. and Mrs. Max Allen and family and Mrs. George Winn, of Clare; Mrs. Wm. Fell of Gladwin; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Colleen and family and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Colleen, Sr., of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Scott and family of South Haven.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Ina Rodgard, dear sister of Mrs. Elsie Andersen, who passed away one year ago July 19th. Sadly missed but not forgotten by her loving sister, Elsie.

BITS O' TALK

Mrs. Earl Isenbauer, Kay, Susan and Gary visited Mrs. Ivan Davis and family in Harbor Springs on Thursday.

Guests of Mrs. Stan Berry Sunday a week ago were Mrs. Alger Bragg of Sears, and Mrs. Lorris Keimath and daughter Mary Jean of Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sherwood were in Saginaw recently to visit Mrs. Roy Griffin overnight. Sunday the 14th the Sherwoods visited Mrs. Peter Zondek and Mrs. Harold Edwards in East Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sator of Pontiac have been guests of the Frank Serwus Sunday, the 14th. The Sators and fourteen couples took a trip on the AuSable. The others were members of a square dancing group from Pontiac here for the day. The weather was somewhat damp.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baskette and sons Bruce and Mike of Wichita Falls, Texas, visited their sister and family, the Dr. B. E. Hennig for several days. They left here Saturday the 13th. Miss Jennette Hennig had as her guest over the Fourth David Mergill of Traverse City.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bonner and children Danny, Richard, Kathy and Mary spent the weekend in Gailton, Ohio, with his sister and family, the Thomas Murphys, going to see his mother, Mrs. Mary Bonner of Hazelton, Pa. The Bonner family had just returned Sunday, July 14th, from a month's trip to California and Washington states. They stopped to visit the Howard Potters at Neah Bay on the Olympic Peninsula, Washington, where Mr. Bonner enjoyed some salmon fishing.

Mike's Sunoco station has added more flowers to the curb planting which was frozen out a while ago. Superintendent of Grayling Schools Joseph Stripe made a trip to Lansing on school business Wednesday of last week. His daughters, Cathy and Rhea accompanied him.

The Misses Claudia Hennig and Kathy Ellison are spending this week and last week at Camp Maqua near Hale.

Rose Schulz of Chicago spent several days last week visiting former school chums.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gagan and six-month-old son Paul came here from Ann Arbor in May and are making their home at Camp La Vieville, where he is assistant director of the Youth Conservation program.

The Arnold Kreegers were at their cabin on Bradford Lake for their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schreiber spent ten days as guests of the Will Christensons, also visiting other relatives while here. During that time Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schreiber of Grand Rapids were overnight guests at the Frank Serven home and visited other relatives. Miss Eunice Schreiber entertained the whole group one day, and in the evening Mrs. Andrew McGuire of Flint invited them all to her home on the AuSable to view slides taken by the Frank Schreibers during their European trip last August. Miss Garnetta Sunday and the Fred Lamons were also invited to see the slides.

Mrs. B. E. Hennig and daughter Jennette were hosts for sixteen ladies at a luncheon and miscellaneous social shower honoring Miss Jacqueline Norenberg Tuesday. The very pleasant affair was held at the Hidden Valley Ski Club at Gaylord.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward V. Myers and Mrs. Clifton Jacobs attended the Myers family reunion in Pontiac Sunday, July 14th, at which some fifty members of the family were present at the home of the Myers' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Walter on Watkins Lake. Mrs. Myers turned out to be the eldest present, and the Walters' daughter Laurie Lynn, one year, the youngest. Miss Pamela Myers of Pontiac accompanied her grandparents here and spent last week with them. The Walter family came up to pick up Pamela and take her home after spending the weekend at the Myers home.

The young son born to the Albert Roldes July 11 is known as George Carl. He weighed 7 lbs., 8 oz. at birth. Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Rohde of Grayling are his grandparents, and Julius Rohde of Lachine is a great grandfather.

Mrs. Robert Klein and daughter Carolyn spent last week in Indiana visited various relatives.
